- Introductions

Angelique Kidd	Craig Kidd
Heather Robinett	Larry Robinett
Chris Jaurigui	Nancy Whitener
Natasha Ramey	Dwayne James

- Updates

- OFW

Water tap is installed. Compost bins are being built. Work day is Saturday, July 25th. The plan is redo the mulch in the apple orchid and also install the posts for the gates (if the details are approved by then)

- Robert Superior

Updating plans - will possibly propose a 12'x12' concrete approach rather than a full driving path. Plan is to install the water tank in August.

Questions:

- What is the minimum set-back from the curb line to gate/fence? – Terry??

- Council/City

City has pavers available for donation to the gardens to use for driving paths – Natasha will get a picture of the pavers and also the amount available. Natasha also reported that tax exempt is available for use.

Questions:

- *Required language for liability signage. Natasha to investigate options.

- Fundraisers

- Concert Series – Food Booth

*The last fundraiser raised $480 net total. Dwayne to check with Mary about next concert. Chris mentioned Streetfest. Chris to distribute information and requirements for a food booth at Streetfest; deadline to apply, health requirements, etc.

- Vincenzo's

The event is planned for September 28th. Cost will be $30 for single tickets and $50 for a couple. Wine/Beer will be served, along with small plate appetizer-type food. Appr. 60 tickets can be sold. Craig mentioned the option of a 50/50 fundraiser during the event.

Nancy to print tickets and distribute. Larry to get flyer to Ferguson Times.

- Scarecrows, etc

Chris is still working on fundraiser. He is planning to get various artists to donate their services to build scarecrows.

- Ordinance

The committee went through a draft of the community garden ordinance for submittal to the city.
