

DISCOVER FERGUSON

Fall in love with our charming neighborhoods.

Whether you're looking for an 1890s Victorian or a sprawling 1950s ranch, you'll find it in Ferguson. The city's rich architectural history encompasses nearly every style and decade from the past century, creating a unique patchwork of homes that brims with character and suits nearly every taste. We have lofts, log cabins, farmhouses, and everything in between....all in a convenient location and at an incredible value!

OLD FERGUSON WEST

Set within the city's original 1896 boundaries, this delightful historical neighborhood offers majestic tree-lined streets and dozens of grand Victorian homes.

LAKE PEMBROKE

A glistening lake rests at the center of this quiet neighborhood, where classic 1950s ranch homes complement an idyllic, park-like atmosphere.

CHATEAU WOODS

Custom-built homes enveloped by rolling hills - that's what you'll find in this stylish neighborhood, one of Ferguson's newest communities.

FERGUSON LOFTS

The first stage in a series of urban-style loft developments, this newly rehabbed building is located in the heart of Ferguson's Citywalk district.

HUDSON ROAD

Large, wooded homesites and several working farms fill this tranquil corner of Ferguson, where the country meets the city in a most beautiful way.
